

Bigger, Better and More Fun! The 2003-04 Harlem Globetrotters.

☆☆☆☆☆☆☆☆

Globetrotters Complete Training Camp for 2004 Tour

The Harlem Globetrotters broke their annual training camp held at Embry Riddle University in Prescott, Ariz., with an elite few selected to join the historic team. Among the newcomers to join the organization in 2004 is point guard Seth "Hot 'n Fresh" Franco. A native of Long Island, N.Y., Franco is the first Caucasian to wear the red, white, and blue uniform since Bob Kartsens played for the Globetrotters in 1942-43.

☆☆☆☆☆☆☆☆

Pope Paul John II's 25th Anniversary: Pontiff Holds Special Place In Hearts of Harlem Globetrotters

Pope John Paul II's upcoming 25th anniversary as head of the Catholic Church, on Oct. 16, has special meaning for basketball's most famous and enduring traveling troupe, the Harlem Globetrotters.

The Harlem Globetrotters were inducted into the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame on Sept. 27, 2002. Click to read the latest interviews from current and Legendary Globetrotter players, or view the photo gallery from the historic weekend.

